Warming Trend After Severe Cold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The effects of a record-breaking cold wave lingered in eastern portions of the Southeast today but a welcome warming trend was moving in from the west along with some rain.

Temperatures from Atlanta west to the Mississippi River were as much as 20 degrees warmer this morning, but the mercury remained in the 20s over the Carolinas and north-east Florida.

In Atlanta, which recorded lows of 9 Saturday and 14 Sunday, the temperature was an almost balmy 35.

Freezing rain, sleet and light snow iced roads through the Midwest. Hazardous driving warnings were posted from the Ozarks to the Lower Great Lakes.

At least seven deaths were attributed to the southeastern cold snap, which brought heavy damage to some Florida crops and complaints from south Florida tourists. However, agricultural officials said damage to the huge citrus crop in that state was "not too extensive."

Temperatures soared into the 40s and 50s Sunday afternoon and weathermen promised further warming today.

Not even the normally balmy south Florida area escaped the cold. Record low temperatures Sunday morning were 32 at Fort Myers, 35 at West Palm Beach and 36 at Miami. Northern sections were even colder with Gainesville reporting 19, Tallahassee 21 and Tampa 28.

Residents of St. Petersburg, Fla., were treated to the rare sight of icicles on palm trees Sunday morning.

A long band of rain dampened states from New Mexico to Kentucky.

Heavy snow was reported along the New Mexico-Colorado border near Raton Pass. Drivers in the mountains were warned of blowing snow and poor visibilities.

Two men died while clearing snow in suburbs of Rochester, N.Y.

London Gets First Negro Policeman

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard has picked a 21-year-old West Indian to be London's first Negro policeman.

A spokesman declined to identify the man. But Scotland Yard said he was chosen for the Metropolitan Police force "under the ordinary system of selection" and probably will start detective training school a few weeks.

Home Secretary Roy Jenkins recently urged police chiefs to recruit Negroes for the force.

Two police departments in the English Midlands are using Negro bobbies on the beat.

Jurors in Speck Case Elusive

By F. RICHARD CICCONE
PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — The trial of Richard Speck, charged with the murder of eight nurses, entered its second week today with prosecution and defense still searching for the elusive first panel of jurors.

The principals in the trial — Judge Herbert C. Paschen, prosecutor William Martin and defense attorney Gerald Getty — spent the weekend recess in their Chicago-area homes. Judge Paschen prepared his reply to a suit filed in the Illinois Supreme Court by the Chicago Tribune, charging that his limitations on news coverage violate freedom of the press.

Speck, 25, was in his basement cell at the Peoria County Courthouse. The defendant, who appeared bored during most of the first week of jury selection, relaxed on his rollaway bunk, exercised in his small cellblock and read paperback books.

A portable shower has been placed in the cellblock across from Speck's cell. His meals are brought from the Peoria County Jail, about 100 yards away.

The trial was moved from Chicago, scene of the murder of the eight nurses last July 14, to Peoria on a change of venue.

Three venire — groups of prospective jurors — were impaneled the first week, a total of 124 persons. Three tentative jurors remained at week's end. A full panel of four prospects was tendered several times, but in each instance the prosecution or the defense challenged a previously accepted member.

State law requires that a jury be sworn in three panels of four and a panel of two alternates.

24 Cadets Involved in Cheating

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Twenty-four cadets at the Air Force Academy are being questioned in the latest cheating scandal after the number of resignations rose to 36.

Three cadets resigned Sunday after admitting they had broken the honor code, which says: "We will not lie, steal or cheat, or tolerate among us anyone who does."

The cheating centered around the passing of test information to classmates who were to take the same test later in the day. All but 5 of the 36 who have resigned were directly involved in the cheating.

The five cadets not directly involved were found guilty of "toleration" under the honor code because they knew of the exchange of information and did not report it.

Rev. Francis J. Gilchrist, the Roman Catholic chaplain at the academy, told the cadets in his Sunday sermon that while the honor code is strict, it is necessary to national security.

"It is a different, difficult and honorable life," he said, "but it is lived with honorable men. The toleration of wrong is universally known as thieves' honor. Are we thieves?" he asked the cadets.

"As we are growing up we are told not to tattle on others. But there is a real difference between a runny-nosed kid and a military man," he said.

Officials at the academy say they have been unsuccessful at finding the cause for the latest honor code violations.

"We have run all available information through computers," said Lt. Col. Lawrence Tacker, public information officer. "There is no concentration figure is considered a conservative estimate."

The raids were made in London, Exeter in the west, Winchester in the south, Winchester in the north and Folkestone on the Channel coast.

British Jail Youths Linked to Narcotics

LONDON (AP) — Narcotics squads swooped down on hundreds of teen-agers at clubs and house parties in five British cities over the weekend. Scores of detectives — some aided by dogs trained to sniff out marijuana — arrested more than 30 young men and girls on charges of possessing drugs.

Huge quantities of reefer and pep pills were seized in the raids. Official sources said the crackdown was ordered by Home Secretary Roy Jenkins, who has expressed alarm at a considerable increase in teenage drug addiction.

In the past six years the number of known addicts in Britain has risen from less than 500 to more than 1,200, and the latter figure is considered a conservative estimate.

The raids were made in London, Exeter in the west, Winchester in the south, Winchester in the north and Folkestone on the Channel coast.

Some Doubt Antimissile Pact to Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some congressional leaders are voicing doubts about administration attempts to negotiate an antimissile ban with the Soviets and are pushing for earliest possible deployment of a U.S. missile defense system.

At the same time, former Sen. Barry Goldwater says the United States would have to break the limited nuclear test ban treaty to establish such a system, but Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, says that's not so.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said he believes Congress will appropriate more than the $337 million President Johnson has asked as standby funds in case there is no agreement with the Soviets and a decision is made to deploy an antimissile system.

He added: "I don't think the President's negotiations are going to have any effect on Congress."

The Soviets reportedly have begun antimissile deployment already. The U.S. system, called Nike X, has been under development but not production. Goldwater said Sunday that in secret testimony before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee in 1963, a scientist he did not name said the United States could not build an antimissile system without atmospheric tests.

Goldwater said the country still does not have the capabilities. Therefore, "if we seriously intend to go ahead with it (the antimissile system) I think we have to break the treaty. We have the right to do it. We have to be able to test the results."

Wheeler, however, said "oh yes" when asked if the system could be tested with the test ban treaty in effect. The Army general pointed to a "vigorous underground testing program in order to pursue such developments."

674 Dies on State Highways

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Police annual report on traffic accidents shows that 674 persons died in Arkansas in 1966.

The report also showed that 116 youths 15-19 years of age were killed. More than twice as many men, 509, as women, 172, were killed.

Farley Raps Fulbright and Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP) — James A. Farley, a former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said today a speech he made highly critical of Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and J.W. Fulbright was not suggested by anyone in the Johnson administration.

In an address to 1,500 Connecticut Democrats at the party's Jackson-Jefferson fund raising dinner in Hartford Saturday night, Farley assailed the two Democratic senators for their criticism of the Johnson administration.

Monday, February 27, 1967

Farley, Democratic party chairman during President Franklin D. Roosevelt's first two terms, said that what he termed Kennedy's "soaring ambition" has led him to "a foreign policy of his own."

Criticizing Fulbright for urging cessation of air strikes in North Vietnam, Farley said: "No other senator in American history except Sen. Fulbright has had the arrogance to tell the commander-in-chief that he should withhold air support from Americans fighting for their lives on a battlefield."

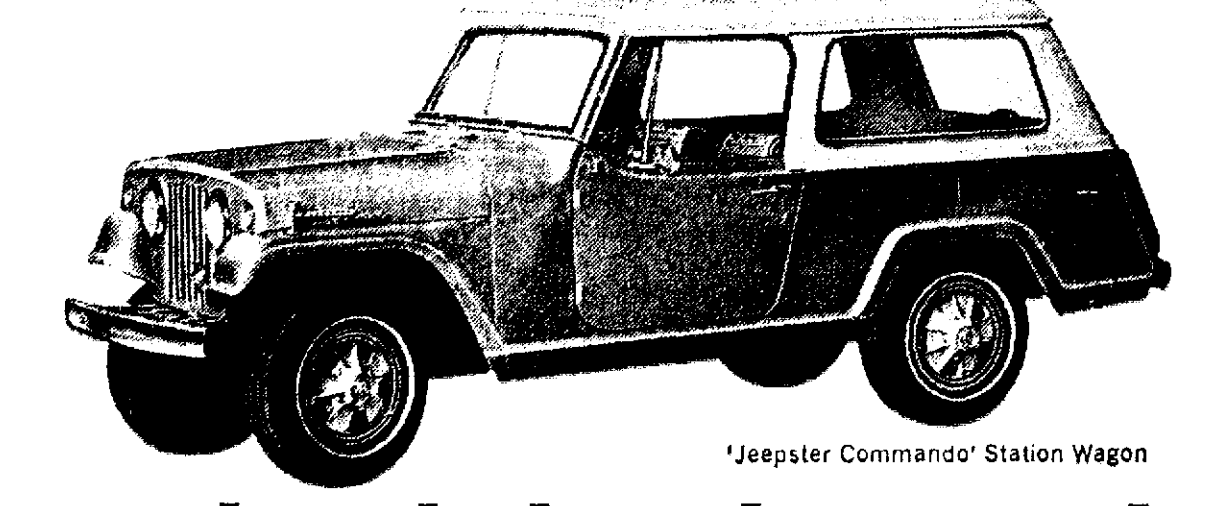

Farley said today in an interview that he was asked two weeks before the dinner to be the principal speaker by John M. Bailey, the party's national chairman, and Connecticut state chairman.

student, Mrs. Downing gave brief notes about the American composers whose works were performed by Friday Music Club members.

Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. played "The Shepherd Boy" by McDowell as a piano solo, and Mrs. Haskell Jones sang "Little Old Lady" by Carmichael, accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, Richard Keyton, a club guest, played what he called four fun tunes on the trumpet, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Keyton, Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr. sang "Plenty of Fish in the Sea" by Foster, and Mrs. Hyatt was at the piano.

Several melodic group presentations were given. Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr., Mrs. Clarence Geist, Mrs. Calvin Smith, and Mrs. Arthur Strech joined their talents for three selections; Mrs. Richard Keyton, Mrs. Calvin Smith, and Mrs. Don Johnson sang two numbers and with Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. they sang two more. Donning clever hats, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Keyton sang a novelty tune, "Young Roger the Miller." Mrs. Strech played a number by Griffes as a piano solo.

"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," the Hymn of the Month, was sung by all after Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr. had told the history of it. Cherry dessert and coffee were served to about 30, including Miss Helen Lyon of Arkadelphia, Mrs. Harry Silver and Mrs. F. M. Horton.

NEW BRIDE IS HONORED WITH SHOWER

Miss Chris Alexander of Texarkana who became the bride of Jimmy Fry this past weekend,

The guest of honor was attractively attired in a beige dress with a pink mum corsage. The mothers of the couple, Mrs. Julius Alexander of Texarkana and Mrs. Roy Fry, were given white mum corsages.

The serving table was covered with a pink net cloth over white, and centered with an arrangement of pink flowers flanked by pink candles in silver. Frosted punch and petits fours were served to the 50 guests. These included Miss Judy Alexander of Texarkana, sister of the honoree. Many lovely and useful gifts were presented to the guest of honor.

Dr. and Mrs. Olen Hughes, Conway, were the weekend guests of his sister, Mrs. E. H. Stewart, and Mr. Stewart.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR. Printed by Offset

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — The Variety hour, so often a predictable bore, took a giant step Thursday night with ABC's "C. Est La Vie."

In the hour, taped in Paris, it may have been the first time in the careers of either Maurice Chevalier and Diahann Carroll that they were successfully upstaged by production values, staging and camerawork. Good as both were, the real star of the show was its director, Jean-Christophe Averty.

The program sparkled with innovation and imagination. Averty used his big white stage like a canvas, sometimes breaking it with straight lines, sometimes with hollow block inside of which were his dancers and stars.

Miss Carroll and Chevalier serenely sang their charming ways through all this inventive background. In one number, Miss Carroll sang "Some of These Days" in a forest of blinking spotlights of various colors.

If the program had one fault it was that the backgrounds were often so busy, so unusual and so attention-getting that the viewer's attention strayed from the principals in the center of things.

The packaging firm of Goodson and Todman, soon to be out of evening game shows when "To Tell The Truth" and "What's My Line?" disappear, have a new daytime entry, "Snap Judgment" arriving in NBC's lineup on April 13.

It will replace the feeble entry, "Reach For The Stars," out of Merv Griffin's production shop, that managed to survive only three months.

Ed McMahon, Johnny Carson's late evening man Friday, will be host on the program which appears to have been inspired by psychologist's word-association tests on one hand and Goodson-Todman's own "Match Game" on the other.

GOOD TIME CHARLIE

Dear Helen: I met this man last summer. He said he couldn't live without me. But it seems he also can't live without a 42-year-old woman he chases after. He's 31. I'm a little older. My husband is dead and I have a home of my own and some money.

He says he wants to marry me, but he won't give up the woman. He has two children by a former marriage, and doesn't support them. He's "between jobs" quite a lot. He likes a good time.

He drinks. His mother says she is sure he'll straighten out, be patient. I love him and I'm not getting any younger. He's charming, makes me feel so alive. But I'm beginning to wonder: is he a little bit off? DOUBTFUL

Dear Doubtful: Nope, I'd say he's ON — the make!

YOU are "off," my dear, if you expect marriage to change a fortune-hunting chaser! — H.

Dear Helen: Thank you for standing up for us "singles by choice." I agree, marriage isn't for everyone. We who don't marry enjoy life too. Besides:

I think of getting married. But I'm honest as can be. If I truly loved the woman — How could I let her marry ME? — BACHELOR

Dear Bachelor: If husbands all employed such tact — They'd be less apt to get the sack! — H.

Dear Helen: We've been married over a year and are expecting a baby. My husband is my biggest baby, however. Our folks (his and mine) consigned for our car and furniture payments, and he won't pay the bills until they get so far behind the folks get dunned. We have the money, but he spends it on racing cars and his motorcycle. I ask to take care of the money so we can get out of debt, and he says I'm nagging. We won't ever get our baby paid for at this rate. Bill collectors are always knocking. I love him, but I can't go on this way. What should I do? — T.W.

Dear T: Your parents, as co-signers for the payments, should get considerably tougher. Seems to me if you'd all combine forces you might teach this little boy some responsibility. . . and also how NOT to treat a wife, unless he wants to lose her! — H.

Dear Helen: My aunt lost her husband a year ago. She never treated him very well, in fact she was a shrew. But now she's in deep mourning — black clothes; won't go anywhere except to church; refuses to entertain. She was at a family reunion last Sunday (we insisted she come,) and she wouldn't even have a glass of wine — said it would desecrate his memory. Isn't this carrying a coffin around on your back, sort of? — NIECE

Dear Niece: Your aunt is either doing penance or trying to prove she was the loving wife she realizes she wasn't. Straight talk from her minister might help — if she'll listen. — H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble, or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star.

Bids Safe, Two Teams Fall Flat

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Waving a tournament bid in front of Lew Alcindor is like waving a red flag in front of a bull, he charges.

Louisville, Western Kentucky and Syracuse reacted the same way—until they ran down their bids. Now, with no flags waving, they fell flat on their faces.

The apparent letdown probably cost the three clubs some of their national ranking as Louisville was upset by Wichita 84-78, Western Kentucky was gored by Murray 75-69 and Syracuse dropped before Canisius 68-64, all on the road Saturday night.

Alcindor tossed in 61 points as top-ranked UCLA humbled Washington State 100-78 at home and clinched the Pacific-8 title for an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament.

"I guess I bore down a little more because it was for the conference championship," said the 7-foot-1 sophomore.

Alcindor, hitting jumpers, hooks, tip-ins and one-handed dunks, connected on 26 field goals in 35 attempts and nine of 18 free throws top the 56 points he scored in his varsity debut.

In contrast, second-ranked Louisville, 23-3, with the Missouri Valley Conference locked up for an NCAA bid, stumbled on Wichita's pressing defense as the Shockers' seven suspended players returned to action.

Mel Reed scored 24 points as Wichita led all the way despite 24 points and 17 rebounds by Westley Unseld of the Cardinals.

Third-ranked Western Kentucky, 21-2, the Ohio Valley Conference champs, was snorting along with a 21-game winning streak before Murray's Herb McPherson's 24 points stopped them.

Syracuse, No. 8 with a 19-4 record and an NIT bid tucked away, was "halted by Johnny Morrison's three-point play with 24 seconds left that put Canisius ahead 65-64."

Southern Methodist completed its run through the Southwest Conference for an NCAA bid as Denny Holman's two free throws with five seconds left produced an 85-84 victory over Rice.

Other teams still chasing conference titles and tournament bids did not let down.

Princeton, No. 6, all but clinched the Ivy League title by stomping Cornell 81-66 at home, breaking a first-place tie with the Big Red. The Tigers, 22-2, need only a victory at home against Pennsylvania Wednesday to win the title.

Kansas, No. 4, closed in on the Big Eight Conference crown with a 90-55 romp over Missouri at Lawrence that left the Jayhawks 1 1/2 games ahead of second-place Nebraska, their opponent Saturday at Lincoln. Jo Jo White paced Kansas with 20 points.

Ninth-ranked Tennessee remained one game ahead of Vanderbilt in the Southeastern Conference with three contests left after the Vols' top-ranked defense stopped Auburn 54-45 and Ron Wildy scored 19 points.

Houston, No. 7, and Texas Western, No. 10, with NCAA tournament bids already gathered, did not let down as the Cougars charged by Creighton 87-73 and the Miners took apart West Texas 97-67.

Fifth-ranked North Carolina, which must win the Atlantic Coast postseason tournament for an NCAA bid, dropped Virginia Tech 110-78.

The Big Ten race turned into a five-team fight after Iowa upset leading Indiana 75-74 on Gerry Jones' lay-up with 12 seconds remaining in overtime.

Indiana is 7-3 with Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern and Wisconsin tied at 6-4.

NIT-bound Providence stopped Holy Cross 88-75 as Jimmy Walker scored 47 points in his struggle with Alcindor and Mal Graham of New York U. for the nation's major college scoring lead.

St. John's, headed for the NCAA tournament, halted Miami of Florida 97-70 on Sonny Dove's 28 points, and Tulsa kept alive its NIT hopes with a 60-59 victory over St. Louis.

Wins the Cherry Tree Marathon

NEW YORK (AP)—John Gerlepp, Lindhurst, N.J., won the ninth annual Cherry Tree Marathon Sunday, finishing the 26-mile, 385-yard road course through the Bronx in 2:35:37.4. John Kelley of the Boston A.A. was second.

First public night school for high school subjects was opened in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1856.

Daytona 500 Is Won by Andretti

By DON NORTH
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Stocky, Italian-born Mario Andretti gave himself a $43,000 present Sunday — two days before his 27th birthday—with a lead-footed victory in the Daytona 500, richest stock car race ever.

"It was a lovely day," said Andretti, who drove a trouble-free Ford the distance at an average speed of 146.926 miles per hour despite 54 laps of running in fixed position under the caution flag.

Andretti, of Nazareth, Pa., drove a brutal race, running out front of the starting field of 50 for 112 of the 200 laps and beating out Ford teammate Freddy Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., by one half minute.

Lorenzen, by contrast, spent most of the race hiding in the fuel-and-engine-saving slipstream of one or another of the lead cars, lying in wait for mechanical trouble to clear his way.

Lorenzen's drafting of the leaders won him a 100-mile qualifying race Friday. But it didn't work in the main event. With three laps to go, Lorenzen found himself an impossible 25 seconds behind and had to settle for $14,950 second money.

A lap behind Lorenzen in third spot came James Hylton of Inman, S.C., in a 1965 Dodge. He collected $10,925. Veteran Tiny Lund of Cross, S.C., took fourth place in a 1966 Plymouth and won $6,675.

The 1-2 Ford finish avenged last year's Plymouth-Dodge victory in the 500 and brought the Ford factory entries back into the national stock car picture.

The 500, with $200,000 in prize money, paid the biggest purses in stock car history and played to a packed house of 94,255, one of the biggest crowds ever to witness a sports event in the South.

Andretti put his foot into the gray and red Ford from the start, turning one lap at an unofficial 182 m.p.h. While the average speed was well below a record, due to the time spent under the caution flag, the pace ranged between 173 and 179 m.p.h. most of the way.

Former Big League Player Dies at 53

LOS GATOS, Calif. (AP)—Thomas G. Heath, baseball manager, scout and former major league catcher, died Sunday of complications following a gall bladder operation. He was 53.

Heath's professional baseball career started in 1932 at Rock Island, Ill., of the Mississippi Valley League. He was a catcher with the old St. Louis Browns of the American League in 1937-38. He wound up his playing days in 1946 with the Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association.

Heath, who managed the St. Louis Cardinals from 1953 to 1958, was a scout for the Cardinals from 1958 to 1964.

Heath was married to a woman named Ruth. He had two children, a son and a daughter.

ST. LOUIS infielder Jerry Buchek finds himself under the watchful eye of manager Red Schoendienst in St. Petersburg, Fla. With the boss around, there's no goofing off.

Bobcats Finally Hit Win Column

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Star Sports Writer

The Hope Bobcats hit the win column for the first time in four games Saturday night as they avenged an early season defeat in running past the Malvern Leopards, 57-50, at Jones Field House.

Complementing their well executed fast break with a scrappy full court press, the Bobcats kept the game going at a fast pace. Then with a slim lead late in the final period, an effective Hope stall offense salvaged the victory.

The Cats had lost three consecutive Region 4AA games before Saturday's match with the Leopards and had seen the possibility of a state tournament berth fade out of sight. However, their performance against Malvern reminded many of the Bobcats' early season form when they were still strong contenders in the 4AA race.

Things couldn't have been tighter through the first two quarters as the Leopards found trouble breaking a stubborn Hope press and the Cats had equal difficulty getting inside the visitor's man-to-man defense. At the end of one quarter the score was knotted at 14-14.

However, by the end of the first half of play the Leopards had managed a slim 2 point advantage, 31-29. Although the action was moving at a rapid pace there was nothing that could be done about the slow scoring. Even the 60-point pace which the teams managed to keep during the first half was not maintained through the last two periods.

The Leopards hit a scoring drought through more than three minutes at the opening of the third quarter. Consequently the Cats were able to build a slight lead early in the second half, lead early in the second half, although it never exceeded 5 points, in a game which had gone so close it was a definite advantage.

The third period ended with the score, Hope 44 - Malvern 39. A stout Leopard challenge through the early moments of the fourth stanza narrowed the gap and almost tied things up, but the Cats held on.

With 3:17 left to play the Cats went into a stall offense. With this kind of ball control strategy the Bobcats kept the ball on their own end of the court for over a minute and a half. By the end of the contest the Cats had even stretched their lead to seven as they won their eleventh of twelve games at home this season. The final score was 57-50.

Stan Parris led the Bobcats in scoring with 22 points for the night. Others scoring were Stan Reyenga and Luther Shaw with 13 apiece, Larry East with 7, and Danny Griffiths with 2.

In the B-team game the Malvern crew pulled out a 61-53 win over the Hope Jr. Varsity in a very close and fast moving affair just prior to the senior game.

John Henley was the leading scorer for Hope with 19 points. Both the Bobcats and the B-team will be in action twice this week, both on week nights as they finish out their '67 season.

On Tuesday night they will meet the Arkansas High Hazorbacks of Texarkana in a non-region game before completing the schedule Thursday night against Camden in 4AA play. The Texarkana game will be in Jones Field House while the Camden game will be away.

World Figure Skating to Open Tonight

VIENNA (AP)—The 1967 World Figure Skating Championships formally opens tonight amidst a simmering controversy between Canada and the International Skating Union over judging practices.

The week-long competition gets under way Tuesday morning with the first compulsory events in all four categories.

But championship headquarters were buzzing over an open letter by ISU Secretary General George Hessler blaming Canada for what he called unfair criticism of the organization.

Hessler, a Swiss, blasted an article published last year in the Journal of the British Columbia section of the Canadian Figure Skating Association. It alleged that judging practices in the 1966 championships were dishonest and that judges favored Europeans.

In this year's championships, Peggy Fleming, Colorado Springs, Colo., Austria's Emmerich Danzer, Ludmila Belousova and Oleg Protopopov of Russia and the British dance couple Diane Towler and Bernard Ford, are the defending titleholders.

But runners-up in previous international events will be stiff challengers. Among them are Canada's Don Knight, Cary Visconti of Detroit, Gabriele Seyfert of East Germany and the American pair of Cynthia and Ronald Kauffman of Seattle, Wash.

The pairs event will conclude Wednesday, the dance Thursday, the men's Friday and the women's Saturday.

Ryun Victim of Athletic Squabble

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (AP)—Jim Ryun and his world record half-mile appeared today to be the latest victims of the marathon feud between the Amateur Athletic Union and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The president of the NCAA sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation said the USTFF would not comply with AAU terms for recognizing Ryun's 1:49.9 half-mile.

The terms: That the USTFF request the AAU for retroactive sanction of the National USTFF meet last June at Terre Haute, Ind., where the fabulous 19-year-old set the mark.

Father Wilfred H. Crowley, Jesuit priest who heads the USTFF, accused the AAU of using "any means to preserve their monopolistic and self-assumed power." He said the AAU "has no right to impose its jurisdiction" on the federation.

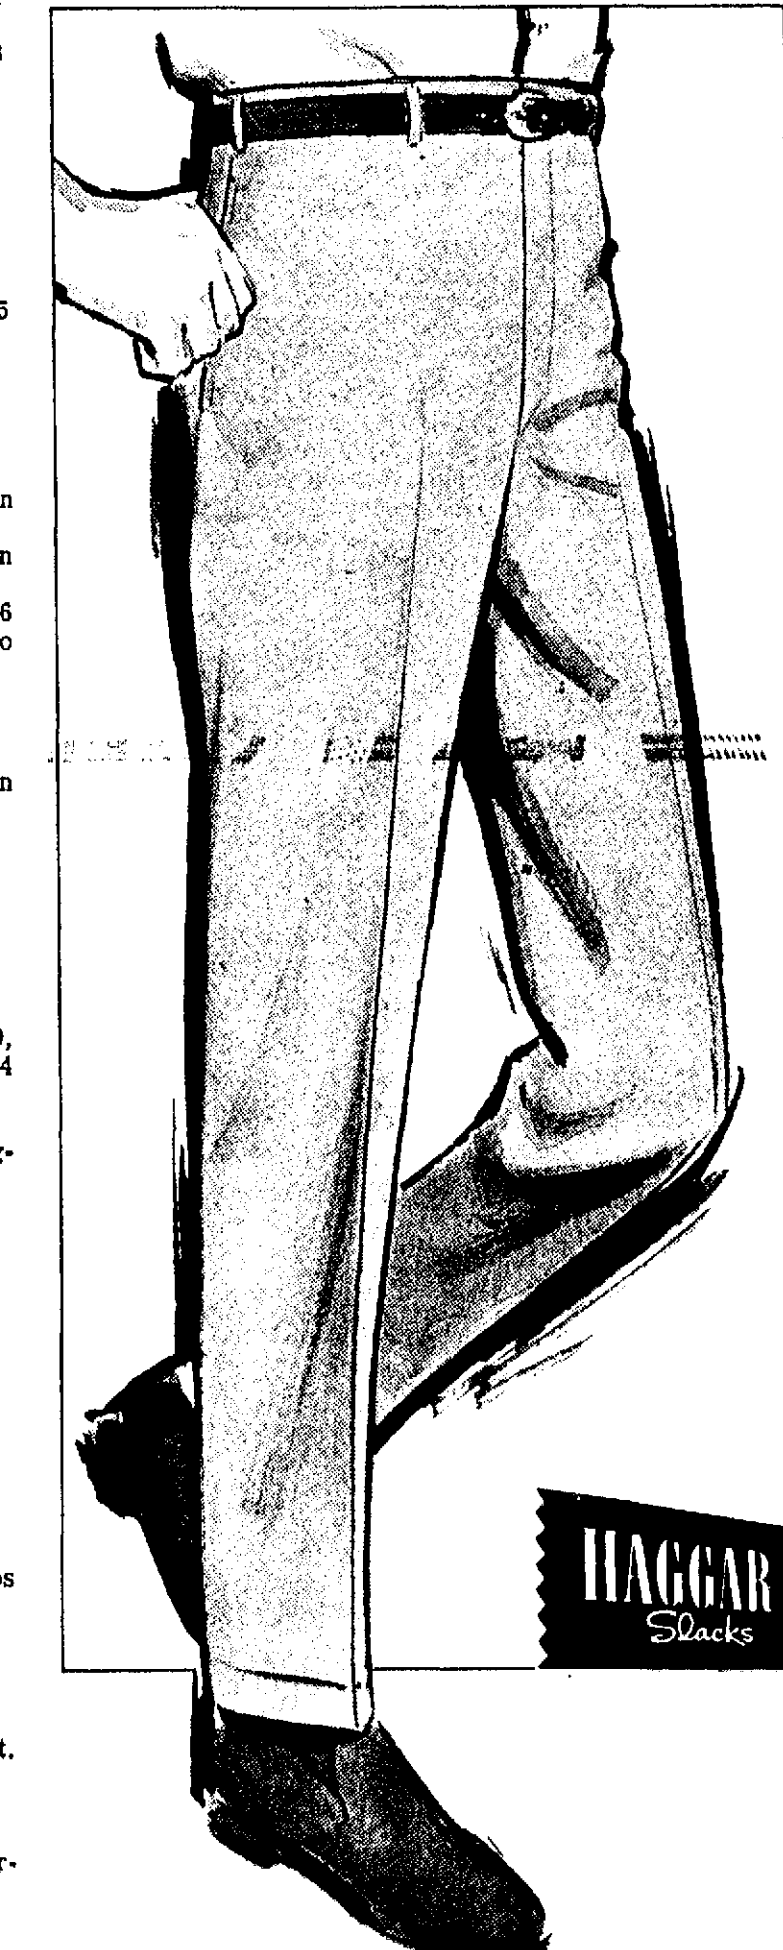

"The meet in which Ryun set his record was either a bona fide amateur meet conducted under proper conditions for the establishment of a world record or it was not," Crowley said in a statement. "If it were not, then all competitors should be declared ineligible by the AAU and the mark never should have been submitted to the International Amateur Athletic Federation."

Olympic Group Ends in Rebuff to the NCAA

CHICAGO (AP)—The United States Olympic Committee's biennial meeting which ended Sunday turned out to be another rebuff of membership attempts by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The USOC membership, predominated by Amateur Athletic Union factions, turned back an attempt by three NCAA-backed groups at Olympic membership by a 1046-729 vote.

All other factions seeking membership at the various levels beginning from Groups A to Groups E were admitted by a unanimous voice vote.

However, when the federations for track and field, gymnastics and basketball sought admittance, a separate vote was taken in a Toronto hospital today, and all three were turned down, leaving from extreme exhaustion.

The basketball group was the first to be turned down and as a matter of expediency, the other factions accepted the same day night and Toronto used vote as their fate since no changes were expected.

In other business matters, the USOC delegates made rapid, in fact, record progress.

It took something like 15 minutes for revision of the USOC constitution which involved re-phrasing of statements and elimination of matters "no longer in shutout hockey — for Ranger keeping with present times,"

The move also wiped out the inconsistency of amendments upon amendments and made the constitution consistent.

Olympic development projects upon progress were reviewed and treated, which used Henri Richardson funds were approved for the completion of with Chicago.

In Sunday's other game, Ron Stewart's goal with nine seconds left lifted Boston into a 3-3 tie with Detroit.

In Saturday's games, New York blanked Montreal 5-0, Toronto shut out Detroit 4-0 and that investigations were under Chicago downed Boston 6-3.

Punch Imlach, Toronto's all-around general manager-coach, can't help but get healthy on the steady diet of victories supplied by his streaking Maple Leafs, the hottest team in the National Hockey League.

Imlach remains bedded down in a Toronto hospital today, suffering from extreme exhaustion while his Leafs continue to wear down the enemy.

It was New York's turn Sunday night and Toronto used Johnny Bower's sturdy goaltending and a little bit of luck for a 4-2 victory that ended two Ranger strings.

The loss was the first after four victories for New York and the goals ended a scoreless string of 182 minutes, 32 seconds better than nine periods of nation matters "no longer in shutout hockey — for Ranger keeping with present times,"

It was the seventh straight victory for the third-place Leafs, who trail New York by just five points. Toronto is four points up on fourth-place Montreal.

Montréal's late goal to gain a 2-2 tie with Chicago.

In Sunday's other game, Ron Stewart's goal with nine seconds left lifted Boston into a 3-3 tie with Detroit.

In Saturday's games, New York blanked Montreal 5-0, Toronto shut out Detroit 4-0 and that investigations were under Chicago downed Boston 6-3.

In connection with offers to stage the 1968 Olympic trials, ago and with King Clancy, his assistant, running the club, the Leafs have won five straight. They are unbeaten in the last eight following a 10-game winless spell.

Bower, the 42-year-old goalie, turned away 39 Ranger shots Sunday and power play goals by Mike Walton and Jim Pappin in the second period proved the difference.

Richards' goal with 4½ minutes remaining gave the Canadiens their fifth tie in 11 games against Chicago this season. It came when Montreal defenseman Ted Harris intercepted a weak clearing pass and sent the puck into a cluster of players in front of Black Hawk goalie Denis DeJordy.

The Red Wings' winless string was stretched to four games when Stewart beat Roger Crozier, for the tie. The Bruins had pulled goalie Ed Johnston for an extra attacker in the final minute.

Detroit had wiped out a 2-1 Boston lead with a pair of third-period goals before Stewart tied it.

The victory was the fourth in 12 conference games and the sixth of the season in 20 games for the Razorbacks who have fought problems of inexperience and lack of height throughout the year.

Tommy Rowland scored 29 points, including a three-point play with 2:07 left that gave the Porkers a seven-point lead. Wally Freeman added 24 points for Arkansas, David Self 14 and Benton Cone 10.

Wayne Kreis led TCU with 25 points.

Willie Davis Honored at Texarkana

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Difference in the National Football League and the American Football League is the reaction to pressure, says Willie Davis, defensive star of the mighty Green Packers.

The 240-pound defensive end, Davis, who now lives in Chicago, came back to Texarkana where he got his first football experience to be acclimated by the citizenship of both Texarkana, Tex., and Texarkana, Ark., a city divided by a state line.

He flew in Sunday, was greeted by some 1,500 persons including the mayors of the two cities, and will be given a big banquet

tonight. The mayors were Dale Griffin of Texarkana, Ark., and Ned Courtney of Texarkana, Tex.

It is the first time in Texarkana history for an athlete to declared he had made a mistake to have a "day" in this city.

Anytime, he became a fixture with Green Bay in 1960 and has won four divisional titles and three world championships during his career.

Asked if he hated the AFL, Davis grinned and said, "How direction of a defense generally you going to hate somebody that gives you $22,000?"

That was the amount of money taken down by Green Bay players from the NFL playoff but meanwhile is working for a and the Super Bowl.

Davis, now 32, said he planned to play at least two more years but

Final Week of Play for Hog Cagers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas enters the final week of the 1966-67 basketball season today on the heels of an important victory over Texas Christian, the No. 2 team in the Southwest Conference.

The Porkers turned the tide on TCU here Saturday, assuring Southern Methodist of no worse than a tie for the league title. The Mustangs clinched the crown Saturday night by whipping Rice.

The victory was the fourth in 12 conference games and the sixth of the season in 20 games for the Razorbacks who have fought problems of inexperience and lack of height throughout the year.

all-NFL four of the last five years, declared that this reaction to pressure that prevents a team from collapsing in the stretch of a football game comes from experience which the NFL has over the AFL.

Davis, who now lives in Chicago, came back to Texarkana where he got his first football experience to be acclimated by the citizenship of both Texarkana, Tex., and Texarkana, Ark., a city divided by a state line.

He flew in Sunday, was greeted by some 1,500 persons including the mayors of the two cities, and will be given a big banquet

tonight. The mayors were Dale Griffin of Texarkana, Ark., and Ned Courtney of Texarkana, Tex.

It is the first time in Texarkana history for an athlete to declared he had made a mistake to have a "day" in this city.

Anytime, he became a fixture with Green Bay in 1960 and has won four divisional titles and three world championships during his career.

Asked if he hated the AFL, Davis grinned and said, "How direction of a defense generally you going to hate somebody that gives you $22,000?"

That was the amount of money taken down by Green Bay players from the NFL playoff but meanwhile is working for a and the Super Bowl.

Davis, now 32, said he planned to play at least two more years but

THE WELL CHILD
Seek Fast Relief if Croup Causes Difficult Breathing
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Croup is a potentially fatal disease that is seen mostly in children between the ages 2 and 4 during the winter months. In this disease an acute inflammation of the larynx causes a characteristic barking cough and difficulty breathing off the swelling chokes off the upper air passage. The three chief forms of the disease are bacterial, viral and spasmodic. The bacterial is the most common and the most dangerous because it comes on suddenly and progresses rapidly.
If your child gets croup, put him in a warm room and use a steam kettle to humidify the air. Take care that he doesn't inhale the steam directly. If he shows any signs of difficult breathing your doctor should decide whether or not hospitalization is necessary. If the doctor finds an acute swelling in the larynx he will want to put your child in the hospital because an emergency opening in the windpipe below the swelling may be a life-saving measure.
In a recent study, this operation (tracheotomy) was necessary in over half of the children hospitalized for bacterial croup. Antibiotics are usually effective against this type of croup if they are given early enough in the course of the disease.
Viral croup is milder and does not require hospitalization. The child usually recovers in a few days. Attacks of spasmodic croup usually occur at night when the child is sleeping and clear up by morning. They may, however, recur two or three times a week.
The main thing for parents to do is to watch for any signs that a child's croup is causing labored breathing. If this happens the doctor should be called at once. If he can't be reached the child should be taken to the hospital emergency room.
Q—I have heard that some children get too much vitamin D. My daughter stopped giving her 2-year-old son his vitamin pills because they contained this vitamin. Should she give him vitamin pills without the vitamin D?
A—Unless it has been shown that your grandson has a vitamin deficiency he should be getting plenty of all the essential vitamins in his diet. Exposure of his skin to the sun for a few minutes every day will allow his system to produce a sufficient amount of vitamin D. Although vitamin D poisoning does occur in infants it is produced only in those who get more than 2,000 units daily for several months. The daily requirement of this vitamin is 400 units.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Some of the world's worst earthquakes have occurred in China and have resulted in tremendous devastation of property and loss of life. The greatest loss of life of any earthquake was on Jan. 23, 1556, in Shensi Province. An estimated 830,000 people were killed. In modern times, an earthquake killed 180,000 people in Kansu Province in 1920.

Opening lead—A 7

We have been worrying about queen and jacks for the past two weeks. This week we will worry about ten spots. These cards aren't likely to cause trouble unless you also miss some higher honor in the suit.

East reached almost to the bottom of the barrel to find his opening spade bid but he did hold 11 high card points and a decent spade suit. This cream cheese opening did not keep North and South from getting to three no-trump but it did tell his partner what to open.

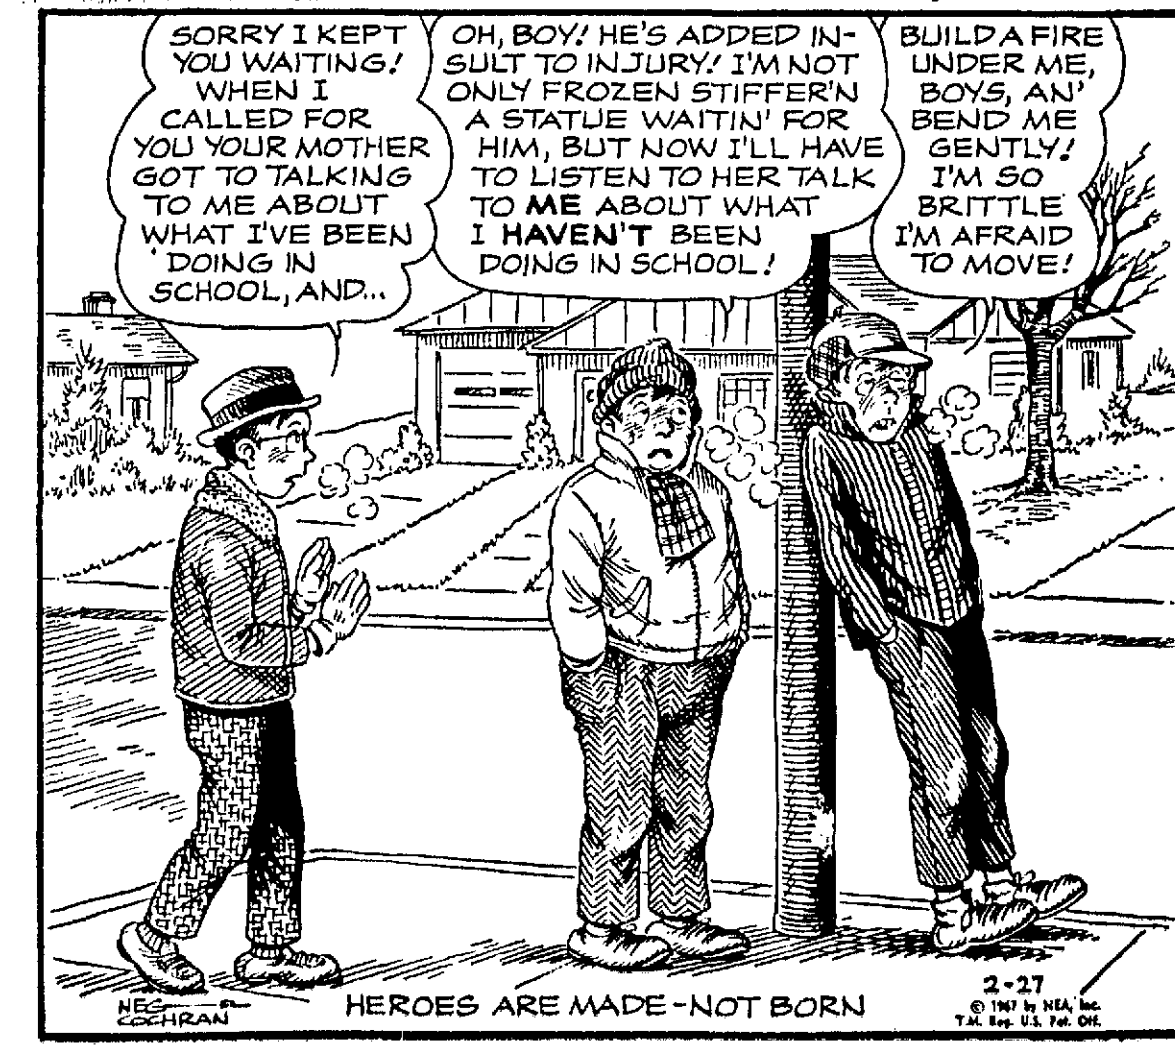

Without a spade lead South would have had time to knock out both the heart and club aces and would have made an easy four no-trump. The spade lead gave him a problem.

It was obvious that East held both missing aces. South was not going to have time to knock them both out. He studied the club suit and saw that he could make four club tricks if the suit broke 3-3 for him or if he could pick up the ten spot some way or other.

Clubs were likely to break 4-2, but if West held the ten of clubs he could handle it. Therefore South led a club toward dummy at trick two and stuck in the nine spot. East produced the ten, went about the business of knocking out South's second high spade and set South two tricks.

South's play had been ingenious but incorrect. South could count six tricks in the red suits and the ace and king of spades. He could make his contract if he could get in just one club. Therefore, South should have led a diamond to dummy's nine of clubs. If East ducked, South would win the trick and knock out the ace of hearts. If East rose with the ace, South would be able to take four club tricks.

Declares CIA Financed Socialism

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Sen. Barry Goldwater says the Central Intelligence Agency worked "to finance socialism in America."

And Michael Wood, the former National Student Association official who blew the whistle on NSA's ties with the CIA, says the spy agency once threatened to discredit an NSA official by forging psychiatric records.

These are the latest charges against the CIA growing out of the two-week-old clamor over its financing of private organizations.

Goldwater said Sunday he saw nothing wrong with the CIA operations except that, he said, all the money went to "left wing organizations."

"Why didn't they spread this money around," he asked. "In other words, what they have been doing with it, as far as I can see, is to finance socialism in America."

He said "a little money could have gone to the Young Republicans, the Young Americans for Freedom, to some conservative groups."

He spoke on CBS' "Face The Nation".

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., agreed separately that most of the money went to left-of-center groups. "It is just as bad to subsidize left-of-center groups as it is to subsidize right-of-center groups," he said.

Wood, former NSA director of development in charge of fund raising, refused to "obvious personal reasons" to say how he learned of the threat to forge psychiatric records.

Wood said the CIA wanted to keep the threatened official from divulging anything about the spy agency.

"There were immense pressures exerted on me but by no one whom I wasn't already conversant with, with respect to the CIA," he added.

"There were pressures placed on other people in attempts to try to get lawyers to drop cases, attempts to get lawyers to feed CIA lines to their clients, threats to forge psychiatric records," he said.

Wood, two senators, a former CIA official and four other present or former NSA officials appeared Sunday on one of the other two panels discussing the CIA's financial support of NSA.

Except for Wood's charge, both panels mostly discussed — and disagreed — on the role of a spy agency in a democracy and whether the CIA influenced NSA.

Orioles Are Slowly Winning Over Players

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Baltimore Orioles are slowly winning a fight that may be tougher than their battle for the American League pennant — the fight to sign all their players.

The Orioles, heavy favorites in the preseason betting to take a second straight flag, came to terms Sunday with two of the pitchers who played major roles in getting them their first one, Dave McNally and Jim Palmer.

But still unsigned are several other key players, including first baseman Boog Powell, outfielder Curt Blefary, pitcher Steve Barber and second baseman Dave Johnson.

McNally, 13-6 last season, and winner of the last game of the World Series over Los Angeles, signed for about $25,000, some $7,000 more than his 1966 salary. Palmer, the Orioles' winningest pitcher last season at 15-10, signed for about $15,000.

Other players who came to terms over the last weekend before all the major league teams begin full-team workouts were Elston Howard and Charley Smith of the New York Yankees, Cookie Rojas of Philadelphia and Frank Howard of the Senators.

The holdouts included Jim Bunning and Richie Allen of the Phillies, Milt Pappas of Cincinnati and Camillo Pascual, Bob Priddy and Jim Duckworth of the Senators.

Howard took a cut of about $10,000 to around $67,000 from the Yankees, but was promised he could get some of it returned if he came up with a good season after two poor ones.

"I've always given 100 per cent," said Ellie. "This year I'll have to give 125 per cent. I want to get the money back."

Frank Howard took a small cut from Washington to about $40,000, while Pappas balked at a proposed cut in his $36,000 salary from the Reds. Milt wanted a raise instead.

Elsewhere on the grapefruit circuit, Roy McMillan, the veteran shortstop who was cut by the Mets, showed up for another try at making the club and got some encouragement from manager Wes Westrum.

"Right now we're counting on Bud Harrelson for shortstop," Westrum said. "But an old pro like McMillan could be a good backup man."

Pete Mikkelsen and Jim Pagarani appeared at the Pittsburgh camp with sore throats and were sent off to rest up for a while.

SMU Trying Third Time in the NCAA

By JACK DONOVAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern Methodist, a team with a history of losing out in the national rankings, makes its third consecutive try for NCAA basketball honors starting with the Midwest regional tournament next month.

The last two years the Mustangs failed to survive the first round of the Midwest regional and their chances this time appear not much brighter. They meet Louisville, champion of the Missouri Valley Conference and the second-ranked team in The Associated Press Poll, in the first game at Lawrence, Kan., March 17.

SMU won its third straight Southwest Conference championship—and the eighth for Doc Hayes in 20 seasons—with an 85-84 victory over Rice Saturday night.

The Mustangs pulled it out in what has become almost a tradition in the closing seconds. That is winning in the closing seconds.

Only five seconds remained when Denny Holman walked to the free throw line for two tries. Rice in front 84-83.

Holman, winding up an outstanding career, flipped in the first one to tie the score and then made it a perfect nine-for-nine game at the free throw line by tossing in the second one for the winning point.

The victory was SMU's 10th in 12 conference games.

The conference concludes its 53rd season this week with games Tuesday and Thursday night.

The champion Mustangs will try to improve on their 17-5 season record with triumphs at Texas A&M Tuesday night and at home with Texas Thursday night.

Arkansas, which was alone in last place before Saturday, assured SMU no worse than a tie for the title by upsetting TEXAS Christian 83-78 in an afternoon game at Fayetteville as Tommy Rowland and Wally Freeman combined for 53 points. The Mustangs put the issue beyond the reach of TCU and Texas, both tied for second place at 7-5, by beating Rice and dropping the Owls into a seventh-place tie with Arkansas.

In other conference games Saturday, Texas defeated Texas A&M 72-58 and Baylor edged Texas Tech 57-54.

Baylor's Jimmy Turner outscored Darrell Hardy 23-17 in that game and replaced his teammate as season scoring leader. Turner has 466 points in 22 games and Hardy has 461.

Two Horses May Be Derby Contenders

We Photograph the Legislature; Crisis Ahead

Cameras are strickly O. K. with politicians while running for office, but not always so good after they're elected. I recall that enterprising press photographers used to have a field day in the federal House of Representatives, until some magazine came out with a picture showing half the Congressmen asleep at their desks, whereupon the House passed its famous edict: "No cameras."

I was in Washington the day the Puerto Ricoans infiltrated the gallery and shot up the House. Later I remarked to then Congressman - now Federal Judge - Oren Harris that it was an odd circumstance of regulation that an American cameraman couldn't go into the House gallery while the same door was wide open to a foreigner with a gun. He grinned wryly and said: "You got a point..."

But mine is an unusual case. As you read this on Monday afternoon I'll be in the Arkansas State Capitol shooting color pictures of the renovated House and Senate chambers and their memberships - by invitation. The invitation was extended The Star in House Concurrent Resolution No. 32 of Feb. 9, which we published with our second four-color photograph Feb. 15.

The resolution was in acknowledgment of the pioneering work by The Star, its staff, and our new Berkeley Direct Screen System machine - second in the United States - in reproducing America's first automatic four-color photo, "Hog-Killing Time in Arkansas," on Jan. 28. Reprints of that front page of Jan. 28 went all over America in the sales promotion of Berkeley Technical Corp., New York, and of course got endless publicity for our state and town and newspaper.

We'll make the Ektachrome pictures Monday, have the film processed in Dallas, and will receive the finished transparencies probably Thursday. As soon as possible we'll make the separation negatives on the Berkeley machine and get the four-color pictures into The Star. Copies of the newspaper will go to every member of the House and Senate, and full-page color prints probably will be hung in each chamber.

Development of the Ektachrome film into transparencies is the only process not now being handled inside The Star building - but we have the necessary equipment in transit to do this, and the day isn't far off when we'll be able to shoot a color picture this afternoon and publish it tomorrow, eliminating the three-day delay at the Dallas processing station.

Of course all this presumes that your editor and ex-Eastman Kodak man and co-owner of Jungkind photo supply house, who sold us the Berkeley machine, don't get fouled up in attempting to make the separations for the legislative pictures. On the other two pictures we used negatives made by the factory installers, headed by the Norwegian co-inventor, Arve Jensen. We saw them do it - nevertheless, (1) We're on our own this time, and (2) The Berkeley machine has 32 buttons and switches, operated in total darkness. When I tell you anything can happen it's the understatement of the year!

Sen. Jones Claims He Likes WR

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) - State Sen. Guy Jones of Conway said Saturday that he has no controversy with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, and that he "regards him highly, personally."

"What I don't like about the new administration is the aides around him," Jones said at a meeting of citizens interested in government activities.

Jones, one of Rockefeller's strongest critics, said he regarded the governor's assistants as being "unqualified to deal with either the legislators or the people."

Jones said he believed the governor's intentions were good and honorable, but said, "I can't say the same thing about the people he's got running the state." He said the aides were in search of power.

Merchants Agree on Non-Discriminatory Basis for Employment China May Start Purge by Trial

By EUGENE LEVIN
TOKYO (AP) - Supporters of Chinese Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung have renewed their attacks on four early targets of Mao's purge, possibly indicating a narrowing of the so-called cultural revolution because of setbacks.

Japanese correspondents in Peking reported ousted Peking Mayor Peng Chen, former Vice Premier Lu Ting-yi, former chief of staff Lu Jui-ching, and former party official Yang Sheng-kun had been officially termed counterrevolutionaries. All four had been accused in earlier wall bulletins of preparing a coup d'etat against Mao a year ago.

The Peking correspondent of the newspaper Nimon Keizai said the counterrevolutionary label was contained in a notice posted Sunday by the party central committee. Such a charge - one of the strongest in the Communist army of epithets - could indicate a trial is being prepared.

Isolation of the four as purge targets came amid more signs that Mao is trying to put a lid on Red Guard zealots and tone down the civil strife. But other reports indicated Mao's opponents are as active as ever, though some of the reports came from Communist foes of Mao who are anxious to see him defeated.

Moscow Radio said in a Japanese-language broadcast that anti-Mao armed forces had taken over the industrial city of Loyang in Honan Province and that a number of Maoists had been arrested. It added that clashes between pro- and anti-Mao groups were continuing in several provinces.

The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from Peking that wall posters carried an order by Premier Chou En-lai for army units to be sent to Honan to restore order.

Chinese travelers arriving in Hong Kong reported that saboteurs severely damaged a railway bridge Saturday night about 55 miles east of South China's major city of Canton, holding up their train six hours for repairs. Passengers were prevented from viewing the damage.

Fish Seminar Held at Rotary Meet

The Hope Rotary Club was among those enjoying the hospitality of the State Department of Education, Distributive Education Service and the U. S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Commercial Fisheries at a noon dinner at the Town and Country last Friday.

Others attending were those enrolled in a one-day Fish Merchandising Seminar at the Red River Vocational-Technical School and special guests. Of these, Leon Coker, Director of the Pines Vocational-Technical School at Pine Bluff, was a visiting Rotarian.

Prior to the meal Miss Sue Goodson, Regional Home Economist, demonstrated making several fish dishes. The dinner, served to about 65, featured catfish from Paul Oller's fish farm and Arkansas rice.

Bob Finley of Cleveland, O., National Director of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, who had welcomed the group, also concluded the meeting with a slide presentation. B. N. Holt, secretary of the Hope Rotary Club, officially represented the club in the absence of the president and the vice-president.

A very important meeting was held last week at the Chamber of Commerce office in the interest of future employment practices by local retail merchants. Approximately 20 local merchants representing most all categories of retailing were in attendance along with representatives of the local schools and the Employment Security Division Office.

During the meeting, which lasted more than one hour, practices that had been adhered to in the past and those of today were discussed at length. The conclusion was, that in the future local retail merchants would adopt a policy of hiring replacement and extra employees on a non-discriminatory basis.

The Employment Security Division Office offered the services of their staff in the screening and testing of all employees for any business who so desired.

It was generally agreed that this is a time of many changes, and in the interest of the continued good relations that the Hope has enjoyed in the past, this policy should become effective as soon as possible.

Local DAR Gets Four Major Awards

At its 59th Annual State Conference held in El Dorado, February 23 - 25, the Arkansas Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave special recognition to the achievements of John Cain Chapter, of Hope, by naming the chapter winner of four first-place awards.

For doing the most outstanding work during Constitution Week, for presenting the most original program featuring DAR Good Citizen Girls, for entering the best Chapter Scrapbook and for having the most advertising in National DAR Magazine.

These certificates were presented to Mrs. Richards Howard, Regent of John Cain Chapter, at the Special Awards Banquet, on Friday evening, at the Rufus Garrett Hotel. In addition to these honors the chapter received Honorable Mention for excellence of its Yearbook and was listed on the Gold Honor Roll for 1966-1967, top honor of the National Society DAR awarded to chapters that have met every requirement on the fourteen points of the national DAR program.

In giving her report to the Conference, Friday morning, Mrs. Howard announced the signing by Governor Winthrop Rockefeller, on February 13, 1967, of her Bill Sanctuary Bill which now becomes Act 78 of the General Assembly, and expressed her appreciation to DAR members and to the many other organizations throughout the State who had so graciously responded to her request for assistance in contacting members of the Arkansas General Assembly on this conservation project of John Cain Chapter.

Mrs. Howard will bring this project to the attention of DAR Conservation Chairmen throughout the United States, hoping that many states will follow the lead of Arkansas and Virginia in emphasizing legal protection for native and migratory songbirds so as to instruct all citizens on the value and importance of these birds as conservationists.

Members of John Cain Chapter who attended the Conference in El Dorado included Mrs. Charles A. Haynes, Honorary State Regent, of Washington, Mrs. Richards Howard, Chapter Regent, with her Page, Miss Ellen Turner, Mrs. Paul W. Klipsch, Regent - elect, Mrs. Charles Locke, of Ozark, Chapter Vice Regent, Mrs. J. J. Battle, of Fulton, Chapter of the Chapter, Mrs. Wilbur Jones, of Ozark, Registrar, Mrs. Howard Waddle, Historian - elect, and Mrs. Arthur Wimmell, of McCaskill.

Before adjournment, Saturday morning, the Arkansas Society accepted the invitation of Osage District to hold its 60th State Conference at Fort Smith, on March 20-23, 1968, at which time the DAR President General, Mrs. William Henry Sullivan, Jr., will be the guest of honor.

Hoffa Case Review Is Declined

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its Dec. 12 decision upholding James R. Hoffa's federal jury-tampering conviction and eight-year prison sentence.

The court rejected the Teamsters Union president's plea for another hearing in a brief order and without amplification, it noted only that Justices Byron R. White and Abe Fortas did not participate.

This clears the way for jailing of the head of the 1.7-million-member union. However, Hoffa could still try to remain free on bail pending court decisions on other legal challenges he has made to his 1964 conviction.

Such freedom is at the discretion of lower federal courts. Hoffa, 54, was convicted in a U.S. District Court in Chattanooga of tampering with jurors at his 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville. A mistrial had been declared in Nashville when the jurors could not agree.

Cold Front Brings Rain to Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A cold front across eastern Kansas and northeast Oklahoma began moving eastward across Arkansas today with scattered thundershowers developing ahead of it in eastern, central and southwest portions of the state.

The shower activity is expected to end in most sections of the state by early Tuesday morning as cooler weather begins taking over, the U. S. Weather Bureau said today.

The bureau said drier air will spread over northwest Arkansas tonight and the entire state on Tuesday under partly cloudy skies.

Low temperatures tonight are expected to range in the upper 30s and mid 40s with highs Tuesday in the upper 40s and lower 50s.

High temperatures Sunday ranged from 38 at Marked Tree to 53 at Texarkana. Overnight lows were generally in the upper 30s to low 40s. No major change in temperature is expected during the week.

At First the Boston Strangler Hoped He Would Be Killed

By HOWARD F. ANGLONE
WALPOLE, Mass. (AP) - Self-proclaimed Boston strangler Albert DeSalvo originally hoped that by escaping from a mental hospital he would be shot to death, but is now content to remain in state prison if he receives proper psychiatric care, his attorney says.

DeSalvo hopes that the massive 32-hour manhunt for him has forced state officials to recognize that he needs the care and is the man who killed 13 women in the Boston area during an 18-month period, F. Lee Bailey said Sunday night.

The attorney said DeSalvo told him during a meeting at the prison that after escaping from Bridgewater State Hospital Friday morning he did "not intend to hurt anyone, especially women."

"He told me his purpose was to run around until somebody shot him, but he changed his mind in response to appeals from our office that were broadcast over the radio," Bailey said at a news conference.

Bailey said a $10,000 reward that his office offered for anyone who captured DeSalvo alive "apparently frustrated his purpose - it was worth too much money to hold your fire."

The former handyman surrendered meekly to two employees of a uniform store in the Boston suburb of Lynn Saturday afternoon. Bailey said he doubts that anyone can show that DeSalvo, 35, was "captured."

Asked whether the massive manhunt state officials marshaled for DeSalvo gave implicit recognition to his claim to be the strangler, Bailey said, "The conclusion is mandatory."

When he was committed Saturday to the maximum security state prison he sought desperately to avoid, DeSalvo said he had been told that inmates there would try to kill him.

Bailey said, however, that DeSalvo no longer appears concerned about such a possibility.

"I think that if he is in danger, our clients and contacts in the prison will inform me - they're pretty dependable," Bailey said.

"Now that he is at Walpole, he sees why I told him he ought to prefer it."

"He finds that his quarters are 10 times better than the dungeon he had at Bridgewater and is content to wait and see what they'll do for him."

DeSalvo was being held in a hospital cell at the prison under 24-hour guard and apart from other prisoners, although corrections department officials said he might be integrated into the prison population as early as today.

DeSalvo was sentenced Jan. 18 to 10 years plus life in state prison after a jury convicted him of assaulting and robbing four women in their homes, but was returned to Bridgewater State Hospital at his own request pending an appeal.

The case was not related to the stranglings which terrorized Greater Boston from June, 1962, to January, 1964.

The Branscum child was killed at Southside Saturday when the family car rolled over at her grandparents' home.

Officers said the child and other children were playing with the car when it began rolling.

Wants No Trouble With Soviet Ships

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Johnson wants no eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation with the Soviets over any sinking of Soviet ships off North Vietnam.

This was understood today by the strict orders to U.S. mine-layers aimed at keeping their explosive out of international shipping lanes.

Nonetheless, administration sources expect that the new mining of North Vietnamese rivers will swell demands that the same be done to the country's principal harbor, Haiphong.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, a presidential advisor who used to be chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and ambassador to South Vietnam, reaffirmed over the weekend his view that Haiphong should be mined despite political difficulties this would raise with Moscow.

Taylor renewed his proposal to close the port because, he said, 85 per cent of North Vietnam's imports enter there, including militarily important oil and surface-to-air missiles from the Soviet Union.

Former Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater said the bombing of the North should be stepped up to include the docks at Haiphong where, he said, up to 10 Soviet vessels unload war cargoes each day.

Asked about the consequences if a Soviet ship were hit in Haiphong, Goldwater replied: "That's too damn bad."

U.S. Keeps Pressure on Enemy

SAIGON (AP) - U.S. Navy planes started sowing mines in rivers of North Vietnam today in a third new increase of military pressure on the Hanoi regime.

U.S. military headquarters said the step, like the other two announced over the weekend was aimed at cutting the flow from the North of men and supplies to South Vietnam. The headquarters announced earlier that long-range artillery in South Vietnam was shelling North Vietnam across the demilitarized zone and that warships of the U.S. 7th Fleet were bombarding military targets from off the North Vietnamese coast.

In South Vietnam, the Viet Cong shelled the big American airbase at Da Nang and an adjoining Vietnamese village with mortars and rockets early Monday, killing 11 Americans and 35 Vietnamese civilians. Another 70 Vietnamese and 32 Americans were reported wounded and an ensuing fire burned 150 wood and tin Vietnamese shacks in the village of Ap Do, on the edge of the airbase.

Reports from Da Nang said 11 American planes were damaged. U.S. headquarters in Saigon said the damage to aircraft was light and the airbase was closed for several hours but reopened at daybreak.

Some reports said the Communists used Soviet 120mm mortar shells, the largest in their arsenal which have been used infrequently in the war. Other reports said the Communists fired eight-inch rockets from truck rocket launchers. If so, it would be the first time in the Vietnam conflict this size rocket was fired.

U.S. headquarters in Saigon said only 12 to 14 rounds were fired, but U.S. officers at the scene said 18 rounds landed on the airbase and about 56 more hit the neighboring village.

As the U.S. command announced the mining of North Vietnamese waterways, North Vietnam charged the naval shelling caused civilian casualties and sent a protest to the control commission. Hanoi also claimed that North Vietnamese shore batteries hit a U.S. warship and set it afire. A U.S. communiqué said the destroyer Benner "silenced a North Vietnamese shore gun which opened up on the bombarding ships" and that "none of the vessels sustained any damage."

Wants No Trouble With Soviet Ships

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Johnson wants no eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation with the Soviets over any sinking of Soviet ships off North Vietnam.

This was understood today by the strict orders to U.S. mine-layers aimed at keeping their explosive out of international shipping lanes.

Nonetheless, administration sources expect that the new mining of North Vietnamese rivers will swell demands that the same be done to the country's principal harbor, Haiphong.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, a presidential advisor who used to be chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and ambassador to South Vietnam, reaffirmed over the weekend his view that Haiphong should be mined despite political difficulties this would raise with Moscow.

Taylor renewed his proposal to close the port because, he said, 85 per cent of North Vietnam's imports enter there, including militarily important oil and surface-to-air missiles from the Soviet Union.

Former Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater said the bombing of the North should be stepped up to include the docks at Haiphong where, he said, up to 10 Soviet vessels unload war cargoes each day.

Asked about the consequences if a Soviet ship were hit in Haiphong, Goldwater replied: "That's too damn bad."
